Additional Costs (optional or vary by location)

To help you create an even more unique and meaningful service, we offer a range of optional extras. The costs for these will be clearly outlined and added to your package based on your selections:

- Memorial urn: A selection of urns with a broad price range is available for cremated remains.
- After-hours transfers: Transfers outside of standard business hours may incur an additional charge.
- Extended mortuary stay: Should extended mortuary care be required, additional charges may apply.
- Travel outside standard service area: For transfers or service coordination outside the standard Sydney metropolitan area, additional travel fees will apply.
- Upsize or additional floral tributes: Larger sized coffin sprays and additional arrangements.
- Catering: For post-service gatherings.
- Audio-visual equipment: For photo presentations, music, or live streaming beyond standard venue capabilities.
- Newspaper notices.
- Memorial guest book.
- Viewing.
- Opening & closing of existing grave - prices vary depending on individual cemetery.
- Grave plot - prices vary depending on individual cemetery.
- Grave marker / Headstone.
- Mourning car for family members to travel to and from the service.

This is a price guide only and subject to personal preferences and prices dictated by external suppliers.*

If additional costs are incurred, the details and cost will be fully discussed and agreed upon with you in advance.
You will have complete control over which additional services you select.

Transparent pricing – Explaining our arranging fee (included in our packages)

While some costs are directly related to the cremation or burial itself, our arranging fee reflects the value of our staff expertise and the comprehensive support we provide. This includes time dedicated to guiding you, managing all required paperwork, coordinating the cremation process, and our travel within the Sydney area to facilitate these arrangements.
